- 7 Lough Fea has a 4.15 km circular pathway offering panoramic scenery, making this the ideal place for walkers. Kids play area and picnic facilities are also available.
- 8 Davagh Forest has a series of casual trails. There may even be an opportunity to catch a glimpse of the beautiful sika deer.
- 9 Broughderg is a rural area boasting many archaeological treasures indicating 7000 years of human habitation. Also offering magnificent views of the Sperrins.
- 10 Beaghmore Stone Circles are a reflection of the ritual and spiritual life in the early Bronze Age. Archaeologists believe that the Beaghmore stone circles date back to around 1500BC.

- 11 Wellbrook Beetling Mill is an 18th century water powered beetling mill situated in a picturesque wooded glen on the banks of the Ballinderry River.

- 12 Drum Manor Forest Park is colourful in Spring and Autumn with a shrub, butterfly and Japanese Garden, arboretum, ponds, mixed woodlands and way-marked trails.

- 13 Killymoon Castle is sited on a raised north terrace slope overlooking the Ballinderry River. The castle and grounds are private, arrangements to view the castle can be made by appointment.

1 Springhill House is a beautiful 17th Century Manor House which was home to ten generations of the influential Lennox-Conyngham Family.

2 Moneymore Model Village complete with figurines is set in a landscape surrounding. Depicting life in rural Ulster at the time of the plantation. Something for the kids to enjoy.

3 Manor Park is an attractive park, within the conservation village of Moneymore, including a circular 1km walk with beautiful woodland areas, wildlife ponds, parkland, play area and picnic area.

4 Reuben's Glen picnic area and wooded walk follows a small river, just over 1 mile in distance. The sound of the wildlife combined with the ripples of the stream, creates an oasis of tranquillity in the midst of an intensive farming area.

5 Iniscarn Forest has a range of walks and is also the starting point for those wishing to climb the hillwalk on Slieve Gallion Mountain.

6 Slieve Gallion is one of the mountain peaks of the East Sperrins (total ascent 528m), offering views of the surrounding region.
